

Internal Dispute Resolution Procedure

Should you disagree with a decision made by the Fire & Rescue Service (FRS) or administrators of the Firefighters' Pension Scheme (FPS) in relation to your benefits, there is a two stage complaints process in place known as the Internal Dispute Resolution Procedure (IDRP). You can make a complaint under the IDRP if you are a:

- Prospective member wishing to join the FPS (Wales) 2015 (FPS 2015), or a
- Firefighter contributing to the FPS 1992 / FPS (Wales) 2007 or FPS (Wales) 2015, or a
- Deferred Firefighter who has left the FRS, but your benefits remain in the Fire Pension Fund, or a
- Pensioner member, who is currently in receipt of a pension benefit from the Fire Pension Fund (which includes a widow, widower or surviving dependent, or non-dependent, of a deceased member of the FPS).

When making your complaint, you can choose someone else to represent your case - a friend, relative, solicitor or union representative for example.

Stage 1: Formal Complaint

You should complain in writing to whoever you think is at fault, either the FRS or the Administrator of the scheme, by completing the application form within 6 months of the problem arising. The facts of your case will be examined along with the scheme regulations, and any other legislation which is relevant. You should receive a written reply within 2 months of receiving your particulars. Confirmation of the decision will be presented, or alternatively reasons will be given for the delay in providing the outcome.

For complaints against the FRS, please complete the application form and return to:

You can also go straight to Stage 2, if:

- You have gone through Stage 1 and haven't had a reply within 3 months of making your appeal; or
- You have gone through Stage 1 and haven't received a decision within a month of the date you were told you would receive it.
